

Compliance Form

Lufthansa Technik customer appreciation dinner

Last name, First name

Position

Company/Employer

In the course of the Lufthansa Technik customer appreciation dinner on 02/04/2019, Lufthansa Technik contributes the cost for the relevant participant in the amount of approximately 200 Euro per person. For our German guests, Lufthansa is pleased to assume any taxes incurred, according to §37b EStG.

We value your participation in this event. Please note that this invitation has been extended as part of corporate hospitality and is not in any way intended to influence any business and/or official decision. In order to avoid any semblance of abuse of the law, we request that you provide us with a signed version of the following statement.

With my signature I declare that;

- the internal regulations which apply to me allow the acceptance of this invitation, and
- by accepting this invitation I do not breach any applicable laws, and
- I have informed my superior and any other necessary person(s) of the content of this invitation and have received any required approvals, and
- I am not involved in any ongoing contract negotiations or other decisions related to Lufthansa Technik on behalf of my employer or a third party.

Place, Date

Signature of Participant